

John T. Knight, M.D

Diplomate, American Board of Orthopedic Surgery
Certificate of Added Qualifications in Surgery of the Hand

Education:

1983 - 1987 Louisiana State University School of Medicine, Shreveport, Louisiana, M.D.
1980 - 1983 Centenary College of Louisiana, B.S. (Biology)
1979 - 1980 Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee

Post Graduate Training:

1992 - 1993 Joseph H. Boyes, M.D. - Orthopedic Hand Fellowship
1991 - 1992 Chief Residency in Orthopedic Surgery, Louisiana State University Medical Center, Shreveport, Louisiana
1987 - 1992 Clinical Residency in Orthopedic Surgery, Louisiana State University, Shreveport, Louisiana

Certification:

Qualified Medical Examiner, October 2000
Agreed Medical Examiner, 2000
Certificate of Added Qualifications in Surgery of the Hand, August 1996
American Board of Orthopedic Surgery, July 1995
Federal Licensing Exam, June 1987

Awards and Honors:

Medical School:
Louisiana Orthopaedic Association Outstanding Student Award, June 1987
College:
Alpha Lambda Delta, Freshman Honor Society
Phi Eta Sigma, Freshman Honor Society
Alpha Chi, Junior Honor Society

Memberships:

American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons
California Orthopedic Association

Practice Experience:

Founder and Chief of Staff of the Louisiana Hand & Upper Extremity Institute, 1993-2001
Chief of the Willis-Knighton Medical Center/Louisiana Hand & Upper Extremity Institute Regional Replantation Program, 1993-2001
Founder and President of Los Angeles Hand & Wrist Medical Associates, Inc. 2001-Present